

By joining The Friends of Hospitalfield you will help secure the future of this unique historic house and its collection.

There are three ways you can join

By Post or by Direct Debit

Complete the allied form and post it along with your membership payment to:

Friends of Hospitalfield
Hospitalfield House, Arbroath
Angus, DD11 2NH

Online:

Visit www.hospitalfield.org.uk and complete the online membership form

For further information, email us:
friends@hospitalfield.org.uk

Hospitalfield is a charitable trust which has to survive by its own efforts.

Registered Charity. No SC009987

Hospitalfield House
Arbroath
Angus DD11 2NH

Telephone: 01241 872 333
info@hospitalfield.org.uk
www.hospitalfield.org.uk

Hospitalfield

CENTRE FOR ART & CULTURE

become a Friend...

Hospitalfield - Angus's hidden jewel

A residential art centre of international repute, Hospitalfield has cast a spell on artists, musicians and writers for over 100 years. Its tranquil country gardens, intriguing architecture, and extraordinary art collection infused with history and family lore, have inspired Sir Walter Scott who used it as the basis for Monkbarns in The Antiquary. It has also inspired artists from all over the world and from Scotland itself including Joan Eardley, Joyce Cairns, Will Maclean and Peter Howson.

Hospitalfield is embarking on an exciting new future as a cultural centre for Angus and beyond.

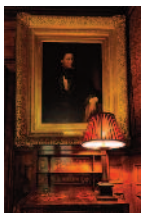

In the coming months a wide range of events will be held ranging from musical recitals and exhibitions, arts and writing masterclasses, talks on local history and Meet the Author evenings with amongst others Alexander McCall Smith, celebrated author of The No 1 Ladies Detective Agency series. These new events will be in addition to the well-established and highly successful Jazz @ Hospitalfield evenings.

You can acquire privileged access to these events by becoming a Friend of Hospitalfield. Other membership benefits include organised tours of the A-listed House and its Gardens for you and your guests as well as the opportunity to book lunch or dinner for family events.

You can also attend Afternoon Tea on specified days throughout the year. You will be able to enjoy exclusive access to its fine interiors including a splendid reception gallery and handsome panelled dining room.

Hospitalfield is much loved by those who know it. Its reputation is high throughout the arts community. Now you have a chance to enjoy its multitude of charms and take part in its cultural activities. By doing so you will play an important part in securing the future of this special place and its wonderful collection.

In Angus, however, Hospitalfield is relatively unknown and very few are aware of its history. Those who know about it probably think it is publicly funded in some way. It isn't. It is a charitable trust which has to survive by its own efforts.